Check List

1. GENERAL FORMAT
   □ Did you have the title page, abstract, the text (Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusion [optional]), Notes (Conflict of interest, Ethical approval, ORCID, Acknowledgements), references, legends for figures, and tables starting from a new page for each?
   □ Is your manuscript organized in the order of title page, Abstract and Keywords, text (Introduction, Materials and Methods, Results, Discussion, Conclusion [optional]), Notes (Conflict of interest, Ethical approval, ORCID, Acknowledgements), references, legends for figures, and tables?

2. TITLE PAGE
   □ Did you present a shortened title if your manuscript is in English and the title is longer than 12 words?
   □ Did you provide names and affiliations of co-authors?
   □ Did you correctly provide contact information for the corresponding author (mailing address, zip code, telephone and fax numbers, email address, and ORCID numbers)?
   □ Are the names of authors separated by commas? Is the name of the last author separated by “and”?

3. ENGLISH ABSTRACT
   □ The abstract should not be longer than 300 words
   □ Did you capitalize the first letter of key words? Did you list no more than five words, separated by comma? Does your format of key words look like as follows?
     Ex) Key Words: Carcinoma, Drug therapy, Hepatitis B, Lamivudine

4. INTRODUCTION, MATERIALS AND METHODS, RESULTS, DISCUSSION
   □ Did you number references serially?
   □ Did you separately describe the “Materials and Methods” session under a sub-session for each?
   □ Did you describe your “Results” under several sub-sessions?

5. REFERENCES
   □ Did you list all references in English? Did you list all the authors for references with no more than 7 authors? Did you list the first three authors, followed by “, et al.” when the reference has more than 6 authors?

6. TABLES and FIGURES
   □ Did you provide the title and explanation in English?
   □ Did you capitalize the first letter of each title and explanation?

Signature ____________________________

* This form is for reference only that can be found during the submission process via homepage (http://www.jkdhs.org).